RE: Vegtrug USA, LLC v. Woodcountry.com et al.
Case No. 12-cv-06192-VB (S.D.N.Y.)

Dear Judge Briccetti:

We are counsel to Vegtrug USA, LLC, Plaintiff in the above-referenced matter. We write jointly with counsel for the Defendants, T&L Cedar Lawn Furniture, Inc. d/b/a WoodCountry.com and Hayneedle, Inc. d/b/a Simplyplanters.com in the above-referenced matter. The parties have stipulated to an extension of time for the Defendants to respond to the complaint until November 1, 2012, from the current due date of October 1, 2012, and request that the Court permit such extension. This is the second such request for an extension. The initial request was made because counsel for Defendants was only retained just prior to the response deadline. The current request is made because the parties believe that, now that defense counsel has become familiar with the facts underlying the dispute, settlement may be achievable without the need for further proceedings.

Per local practice, the enclosed stipulation was emailed to the Clerk of the Court in White Plains concurrently with this letter.

Should you require additional copies, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Respectfully submitted,

STIPULATION EXTENDING TIME TO RESPOND TO COMPLAINT

Defendant T&L Cedar Lawn Furniture, Inc. d/b/a WoodCountry.com and Defendant Hayneedle, Inc. d/b/a Simplyplanters.com (collectively, "Defendants") and Plaintiff Vegtrug USA, LLC herein jointly stipulate and move for an extension of time to respond to the complaint in the above-captioned matter until November 1, 2012 from the current due date of October 1, 2012. This is the second such request for an extension. The first request was made because counsel for Defendants had only been retained just prior to the response deadline. The current request is made because the parties believe that, now that defense counsel has become familiar with the facts underlying the dispute, settlement may be achievable without the need for further proceedings.
